

A BIGGER HOLE IN ONE.

You're looking at a very special edition of a very special car: the new Mini British Open.

It is a distinctive shade of British Racing Green on the outside.

And thanks to a catalyst-equipped 1.3 litre engine, it's also friendlier to the environment.

As you can see, the new Mini British Open has a canvas sunroof that lets in much more of the sun. As you'd expect, it's electrically operated.

Leather trimmed seats and steering wheel are standard. As is a stereo radio cassette.

For just £7,195*, you couldn't have more fun in the open.

But only if you act quickly. Appropriately, for such an exceptional Mini, numbers are strictly limited to 1000 cars.
